Connect

Making connections is important for all of us. With today's busy lifestyles, it is common for us to become isolated and lonely. It is also important for us to reach out to others for the sake of justice, mutual support, and advocacy.

At Living God Lutheran Church, we take connecting with others seriously, and we like to have fun when we get together for friendly mutual support, or for service to others. We value friendship, and we endeavor to be a source of hope and light in the world.

Come, connect with us!
