

Living God Lutheran Church
 3200 Horseshoe Pike
 Honey Brook, PA 19344
 610-273-9383

living.godlutheranchurch@gmail.com
 www.livinggodchurch.org

Please Observe:

- Open dawn until dusk.
- Please enjoy these woods, but leave no trace of you behind.
- Do no harm to the plants or animals.
- Fires not permitted.
- Alcohol not permitted.
- No smoking.
 Please use sand buckets at the entrance.
- No horses, bicycles or motorized vehicles.
- Dogs are welcome.
 Please keep your dog on a leash. Bags and waste cans are provided for your convenience.

Living God Lutheran Church

Walking Trail

*Blessed are they who walk in the light
 of your presence, O Lord.
 Psalm 89:15*

*All are welcome
 All the time*

All people matter to God

Living God Lutheran Church Walking Trail

- The woods trail is approximately $\frac{3}{4}$ of a mile long. Use the short-cut at the clearing for an approximate $\frac{2}{3}$ mile walk.
- The church perimeter trail is approximately $\frac{1}{3}$ of a mile long.
- There are benches at various spots for your enjoyment.
- Wildlife such as rabbits, squirrels, and deer are abundant in these woods. Bird houses have been placed along the trail to attract various species of birds.
- Portions of these woods are designated wetlands, producing unique plants and vegetation depending on the season.

“God writes the gospel not in the bible alone, but on trees and flowers, and clouds and stars.”

– Martin Luther